

Index

In this index, the term “im,” which stands for “introductory matter,” is used to refer to the matter (typically, quotations) preceding the first section of a chapter; for example, “1im” refers to the matter in Chapter 1 preceding 1.00.

A-19 process, see legislative coordination and clearance absurd result, see Plain Meaning Rule accuracy,

as drafter’s paramount duty to client, 1.11; 1.20; 6.31

clear writing leads to accuracy, 6.00

acronyms,

avoid using, 6.30

short titles that form, 1.11; 7.61

Act of Congress,

as distinct from “Act” of one chamber, 2.26 to mean bill enacted into law, 5.20 to mean joint resolution enacted into law, 5.50

“Act” of one chamber of Congress, 2.26 action (as element of legal sentence), see legal action active voice vs. passive voice, 4.31; 6.51

actor (as element of legal sentence), see legal subject

Actor-Action model, 4.30; 4.31

adding value, role of drafter in, 1.20; see also perfectionism adjectives, see modifiers adjournment of Congress, effect on approval or disapproval of measures, 2.52

adjusting for inflation, 4.13 administration, problems of, 4.13

Administration, see OMB; President of the United States administrative deadlines, see deadlines administrative procedure, see also agencies

Administrative Procedure Act as popular name rather than short title, 7.61 administrative review of agency action, 4.48

drafter needs general knowledge of, 1.41 judicial review of agency action, 4.48

adverbs, see modifiers

advisory commission, leadership of Congress as members of, or as appointing members of, 2.10 advisory opinion, federal courts cannot issue, 3.10 affecting without amending, see also amending another law; body of law; reconciling laws that conflict; reconciling provisions (within same law) that conflict

generally, 9.40

avoiding damage to the statute book, 9.70

incorporation by reference, see incorporation by reference

“notwithstanding any other provision of law,” 9.41

“unless Congress otherwise provides,” 9.51

agencies, see also administrative procedure; agency drafter; agents act of agency is void if it exceeds agency’s authority, see Merrill doctrine budget, execution of, 10.31

compliance with deadlines, 4.47 directing statute at official within agency rather than at agency, 4.31 establishment of agencies based on Necessary and Proper Clause, 4.51

- execution of budget by, 10.31
  - interpretation of statutes by, 3.60; 3.62; 6.10; see also Chevron deference
  - legislative program of, see legislative coordination and clearance
  - politically accountable person, 4.31; 10.13
  - President's authority to require department head to give opinion, 10.10
  - review of agency action, clear statement required to prevent, 3.52
  - tensions within executive branch, 10.11
  - testimony of officers of, generally, 10.12
  - testimony of officers of, use in statutory interpretation, 3.77
  - ways in which agencies interact with Congress, 10.12
- agency drafter, see also drafter
- generally, Chapter 10; Appendix 9
  - choosing strategies for developing proposals, 10.50
  - drafters who are "more than drafters," 10.01
  - drafting of measures by executive branch, 10.11; 10.31
  - identifying who your client is, 10.13
- agent-principal relationship between drafter and client, 1.11; see also drafter-client relationship
- agents, sovereign state must act through, 4.32
- "agreeing to" (passing) a resolution, 5.10
- alternatives, analyzing and presenting to client, 4.25
- ambiguity, see also ambiguous terms; clarity; effectiveness; Plain Meaning Rule
- generally, 6.11
  - agency has discretion to interpret under Chevron deference, 3.62
  - Chevron deference, 3.62
  - client might desire ambiguity, 1.12; 6.00; 6.10; 6.31
  - client might not realize when draft is ambiguous, 6.00; 6.90
  - discretion and ambiguity, relationship between, 6.10; see also Chevron deference
  - eliminating, 1m
  - identifying, 1.10
  - interpreted in favor of criminal defendant, 3.82
  - problems that arise when law is ambiguous, 6.00; 6.10
  - vagueness, 6.14
- ambiguous terms (specific examples of)
- "House" (of Congress), 2.10
  - "may," 6.55
  - "member" (of House, of Congress), 2.10
  - "person," see person
  - "shall," 6.55
  - "state," see state
- amendatory instructions, 9.30
- amending another law, see also affecting without amending; body of law; priority of enactment; reconciling laws that conflict; reconciling provisions (within same law) that conflict
- generally, Chapter 9; 9.30
  - amending an appropriations act, 8.20
  - amending law enacted as bill vs. amending law enacted as joint resolution, 5.50
  - amending to read as follows, see restatement method
  - amendment by restatement, see restatement method
  - compilations, see compilations
  - cut-and-bite method, see cut-and-bite method
  - erroneous amendatory instructions, see errors
  - "freestanding," 9.40
  - incorporation by reference, see incorporation by reference
  - punctuation, 6.72
  - ratification doctrine, 9.35
  - redesignating, 9.34
  - repeal, see repeal
  - researching the law, 4.24; 9.41

- restatement method, see restatement method
- striking and inserting, see cut-and-bite method
- to amend or to draft freestanding, effect on referral to committee, 2.22
- United States Code, see positive law and non-positive law
- amending a measure, see also committees; legislative process; reconciling provisions (within same law) that conflict
- amending an appropriations measure, 8.20
  - amendment in the nature of a substitute, 2.24
  - as part of drafting, 1.00
  - at markup, 1im; 2.23
  - long title, special considerations when amending, 5.15
  - on floor, 2.26
  - resolving differences by amendment or conference, 2.30; 2.31
  - use in statutory interpretation, 3.74; 3.78
- amending the Constitution, see constitutional amendment
- amending to read as follows, see restatement method
- amendment, constitutional, see constitutional amendment
- amendment by restatement, see restatement method
- amendments to other laws, see amending another law
- amendments to measures, see amending a measure
- American Samoa,
  - delegate from, 2.10
  - whether the term “state” includes, 4.11; 6.16
- analyzing alternatives and presenting them to client, 4.25
- “and for other purposes,” use of in long title, 5.15
- anticipating how new law will work in practice, 4.15
- applicability, see application; effective dates
- application, problems of, 4.11; 6.80; 7.64
- appointment and removal of officials, President’s powers relating to, 4.52
- appropriations, 4.61; see also authorization of appropriations
- appropriations measures,
  - drafting of within appropriations committees, 8.20
  - drafting of within executive branch, 10.30; 10.31
  - interpretation of, 3.71
  - long title of, 5.22
  - organization of, see organizing and arranging
  - short title of, 7.61
  - style of, see appropriations style
  - typically not general and permanent law, 2.86
  - typically not in United States Code, 2.86
- appropriations style, 8.20; Appendix 8
- arbitrariness, 6.13
- “archaic style,” 8.30
- Archives of the United States,
  - Private Law numbers, 2.61
  - Public Law numbers, 2.61
  - receipt of enrolled bills that become law, 2.60
  - slip laws, 2.62
  - Statutes at Large, 2.63
- arrangement, see organizing and arranging
- articles, see modifiers
- asking questions, 1im
  - don’t be afraid to ask “dumb” ones, 4.23
  - helps client be intellectually engaged, 4.21
- assumptions that are faulty,
  - generally, 4.11
  - assumptions about federal law, 6.15
  - assumptions about regulations, customs, and practices, 6.15
  - using language drafted elsewhere, see start from scratch when you can

- Atomic Energy Act of 1954, actually enacted in 1946, 7.61 maverick style used for, 8.70
- attorney, drafting by, 1.00; 1.31
    non-attorney, see non-attorney, drafting by tendency not to write clearly, 1.31; 3.14
- attorney-client privilege, 1.31
- attorney-client relationship between drafter and client, 1.11; see also attorney; drafter-client relationship
- audience, identifying and understanding,
3.01
- authority to act, see rules of discretion
- authorization (to mean a rule of discretion),
see rules of discretion
- authorization of appropriations, see also appropriations
    generally, 4.61; 7.62
    in reintroductions, 2.11
- Bacon, Senator, of Georgia, 2.16
- Beaman, Middleton,
    generally, 1.40; 2.16; 4im; 4.20; 4.24; 4.27; 6.80; 7.10
    as "Vermont schoolmarm," 1im; 2.16
    as Legislative Counsel of the U.S. House of Representatives, 1im; 1.40; 2.16
- Bentham, Jeremy, 2im; 6.10; 6.25
- Berry, Duncan, Appendix 1
- Bevan, Aneurin, 4im
- be brief, 6.23
- be consistent, 6.24
- be ordinary, 6.22; 6.30
- be readable, 6.25; 7.10
- be simple, 6.21
- "big levels,"
    generally, 7.00; 7.40
- bill, see also legislative process; measure
    generally, 5.20; Appendix 7 becomes "Act" when passed by one chamber of Congress, 2.26; 5.13 enacting clause of, 5.23
    "I'm Just a Bill," 5im
    long title of, 5.22
    modified revenue style is default style for, 8.50 private relief bill, see private relief bill
- bill clerk,
    generally, 2.14
    introduced bills, role in, 2.22 reported bills, role in, 2.25
- bill language, see also report language
    generally, 2.25
    should not include gratuitous commands, descriptions, findings, or definitions,
    6.15
- binding a future Congress, 9.50
- Bismarck, Otto von, 2im
- Blackstone, Sir William, 4.32; 9.50
- body of law (use of in statutory interpretation), see also affecting without amending; amending another law; priority of enactment; reconciling provisions (within same law) that conflict; reconciling laws that conflict; statutory interpretation
    generally, 3.40
    avoiding damage to the statute book, 9.70
    definitions, 3.42; 3.81
    Dictionary Act, 3.42
    earlier versions of same statute, use of in interpreting statute, 3.43 general federal law, 3.42
    in pari materia, 3.41
    incorporation by reference, see incorporation by reference later statute declaring intent of earlier statute, use of in interpreting statute,
    3.74
    related statutes, 3.41
    researching, 4.24; 9.41
    statutes that are in pari materia, 3.41
- "boilerplate" provisions, see start from scratch when you can
- border collie, 4.43; 6.65
- borrowed statute doctrine, 9.35; 9.61
- Bowman, Geoffrey, 1.40; 6.80; 6.90

- BRD, see Budget Review Division
- breath of a fish, 3.11
- Breslin, S., Appendix 6
- brevity, 6.23
- Breyer, Stephen, 3.11
- Bridle goose, 9im
- Britain, see United Kingdom
- broad interpretation, 3.82
- budgetary issues, 4.61; 7.62; see also budget of the President; OMB
- budget of the President, see also budgetary issues; OMB
- annual federal budget cycle, 10.31
  - Budget Appendix, 10.21
  - Budget Review Division of OMB, 10.21
  - budget formulation and execution, 10.22
  - Circular A-11*, 10.31
- “budget season,” 10.31
- “by request,” introduction of measure by sponsor,
- generally, 2.21
  - identifier on face of measure, 5.14
- CALC, see Commonwealth Association of Legislative Counsel
- calendar, 2.26
- Canada, drafting in, 1.40
- canons (of statutory interpretation), 3.21; see also statutory interpretation
- capitalization,
- of position titles in Congress, 2.10
- Capitol complex, managed by use of concurrent resolution, 2.12
- case (as element of legal sentence, according to Coode), 4.30
- cases and controversies, as limitation on judicial power, 3.10
- catchlines, use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- Chabot, Elliot, 7.32
- Chadha* doctrine,
- generally, 2.50; 5.21; 5.40
  - relationship to ratification doctrine, 9.35
- “unless Congress otherwise provides,” 9.51
- Chair, as head of committee of Congress, see Chairman
- Chairman,
- as head of committee of Congress, 2.13
  - as head of subcommittee, 2.13
  - statements of, use in statutory interpretation, 3.76
- Chairperson, as head of committee of Congress, see Chairman
- chamber, see also Congress; House of Representatives; Senate
- defined, 2.10
- Chamberlain, Joseph P., 2.16
- chapter, see “big levels”
- charts, provide so as to best aid the reader, 6.25
- checking someone else’s draft, 4.21, 6.90; see also start from scratch when you can
- Chevron* deference, see also agencies; ambiguity
- generally, 3.62
  - agency interpretation cannot overturn plain meaning, 3.25
  - lack of clarity can work like grant of discretion to agency, 6.10
- Cicero, 9.50
- ciphers, 6.18
- Circular A-11*, Appendix 9; see also budget of the President
- Circular A-19*, Appendix 9; see also legislative coordination and clearance
- citations, see also references
- generally, 9.60
  - provide in a manner that best aids the reader, 6.18
- clarity, see also ambiguity
- generally, 6.20
  - be brief, 6.23
  - be consistent, 6.24
  - be ordinary, 6.22; 6.30
  - be readable, 6.25; 7.10
  - be simple, 6.21

- clear writing leads to accuracy, 6.00; 6.90
- clear writing leads to effectiveness, 6.00
- clear writing not as important as accuracy, 6.31
- elements of being clear, 6.20
- interlocked units as improving, 7.32
- Plain Meaning Rule (of statutory interpretation), 3.23
- classification of laws to United States Code, see United States Code
- classified annex, 6.19
- clauses, see smaller units
- clearance of legislation within executive branch, see legislative coordination and clearance
- clear statement rules in statutory interpretation,
  - generally, 3.52
  - congressional “clear statement” rules, 9.50
- Clemens, Samuel, see Twain, Mark
- Clerk of the House (of Representatives),
  - generally, 2.14
  - certifying an engrossed measure, 2.26
- clerks of Congress, 2.14
- client, see also policymaker
  - identifying who the client is, for agency drafters, 10.13
  - relationship with drafter, see drafter-client relationship
  - to mean one for whom the drafter drafts, 1.00
- Code (the United States Code), see United States Code
- code of laws, purpose of, 2.80
- code style, see also federal drafting styles
  - generally, 8.60; Appendix 5; Appendix 8
  - “big levels” used in, 7.40
  - undesignated paragraphs occasionally used in, 7.33
  - used throughout Code, both positive law and non-positive law, 2.85
- codification, see positive law and non-positive law
- codification notes in United States Code, 2.85
- codified law, see positive law and non-positive law
- coherence,
  - courts assume provisions form a coherent whole in interpreting statutes, 3.35
  - creating a coherent solution, 4.26
- colon list, 7.32
- Columbia University, Legislative Drafting Research Fund at, 2.16
- comma, 6.71
- Commander in Chief, President's role as, 4.52
- commands,
  - generally, 4.41, 4.42
  - directory, 4.47
  - hortatory, 2.25; 4.47
  - imperative mood should be used, 6.54
  - in report language, 2.25
  - mandatory, 4.47
  - “must,” 6.55
  - precatory, generally, 2.25; 4.47
  - precatory, should be avoided in bill language, 6.15
  - “shall,” 6.55
  - “shall not,” 6.56
  - “should,” 4.47
- Commerce Clause, see commerce power
- commerce power, 4.50, 4.51
- commission, advisory, see advisory commission
- committees of Congress, see also specific committees
  - generally, 2.13
  - conference committee, 2.31
  - drafting by, historically, 2.16
  - establishment by bill, 5.20
  - establishment by concurrent resolution, 2.13
  - establishment by simple resolution, 2.13
  - establishment by statute, 2.13
  - full committee, 2.25
  - hearings, 2.13; 2.22

- joint committees, 2.13; 5.20
- jurisdiction of, 2.13
- legislative committees, 2.13
- markups, 1im; 2.13; 2.22
- oversight committees, 2.13
- referral of measures and other matters to, 2.13; 2.22
- referring to by official name, 2.13
- report language, 2.25; 3.75; see also legislative history
- reporting a measure, 2.23
- select committees, 2.13
- special committees, 2.13
- standing committees, 2.13
- subcommittees, 2.13
- Committee of the Whole, 2.26
- Committee on Rules (of House), 2.26
- common law, compared with statutory law, 4.27
- Commonwealth Association of Legislative Counsel, Appendix 1
- competent evidence of law, slip law as, 2.90
- compilations,
  - generally, 2.70
  - drafter should have access to, 1.50
  - “true” compilation, 2.70; 2.85
- “complete job,” 2.16
- compliance with the law,
  - ambiguity can lead to noncompliance, 6.00
  - do not assume everyone will follow the law, 4.42
  - drafter needs to focus on, 4.32
  - problems that can arise when there is a lack of, 4.14
  - readability can help ensure compliance, 6.25
  - “substantial compliance” vs. full compliance, 4.47
- computers, effect of on drafting, Appendix 1
- Conan Doyle, Sir Arthur,
  - generally, 3.11
  - “dog that didn’t bark,” 3.72
- concepts, selecting and using the most appropriate ones, 4.26; see also thinking through the policy
- concurrent resolution, see also legislative process; measure
  - generally, 5.40; Appendix 7
  - Capitol complex, managed by, 2.12
  - long title of, 5.41
  - not presented to President, 2.20; 5.40
  - publication in Statutes at Large, 2.63
  - resolving clause of, 5.42
  - traditional style is sometimes used for, 8.50
  - used for last-minute corrections to enrolled measure, 2.41
- condition (as element of legal sentence, according to Coode), 4.30
- conditions and results, see If-Then model
- conference committee, 2.31
- conference report, see also joint statement of managers
  - preparation of, 2.31
  - use in statutory interpretation, 3.75
- conflict between published versions of same law, 2.90
- conflict between provisions, see reconciling provisions that conflict
- Congress, see also House of Representatives; legislative process; Senate
  - adjournment, effect on approval or disapproval of measures, 2.52
  - “as long as they don’t . . . frighten the horses,” 2im
  - committees of, see committees of Congress
  - delegation of powers to executive branch, 3.60
  - drafting for, 1.00; see also Office of the Legislative Counsel
  - functions of, see powers of
  - generalizations by Supreme Court about, 3.83
  - intent of, see legislative intent
  - leadership of, 2.10
  - numbering of (“101st Congress”), 2.11

- operation of, 2.10
  - organization of, 2.10
  - power to regulate statutory interpretation, 3.14; 9.50
  - powers of, generally, 2.10, 2.12, 4.50, 4.51, 9.50; see also Constitution
  - powers of, limitations on, 4.52; see also Constitution
  - precedents of, see rules and precedents
  - presumed not to intend to change the law when merely restating it, 3.26
  - presumed to intend to change the law except when merely restating it, 3.26
  - presumed to know existing law, 3.12
  - presumed to know how agencies have interpreted a statute, 3.12
  - presumed to know how courts have interpreted a statute, 3.12
  - presumed to know relevant scholarly writing, 3.12
  - presumed to know techniques of statutory interpretation, 3.12
  - referring to as “Congress” or “the Congress,” 2.10
  - rules of, see rules and precedents
  - “sense of” resolution, see sense of Congress
  - session of, 2.11
  - tensions with Supreme Court, 3.13; 3.83; 3.90
  - term of, 2.11
  - transition from session to session, 2.11
  - transition from term to term, 2.11
  - transition of party control, 2.11
  - whether to refer to as “Congress” or “the Congress,” 2.10
  - year of, 2.11
- Congress of the United States, see Congress
- congressional clear statement rules, 9.50
- congressional intent, see legislative intent
- congressional oversight,
  - as function of Congress, 2.12
  - by committees, 2.13
- congressional ratification doctrine, see ratification doctrine
- Congressional Research Service, see Library of Congress
- consequences, drafter needs to focus on, see If-Then model
- consistency,
  - generally, 6.12; 6.24
  - courts assume words used consistently in interpreting statutes, 3.33; 3.41
  - Constitution, inconsistency in terms used by, 2.10
  - inconsistency in terms used by Constitution, 2.10
- Constitution, see also constitutional amendment
  - generally, Appendix 11
  - access to the text of, 1.50
  - advising client about issues relating to, 4.25, 4.53
  - clear statement rules in statutory interpretation, 3.52
  - drafter needs general knowledge of, 1.41
  - drafting of, critiques relating to, 2.10; 3.14
  - executive power, 3.60, 10.10; see also Merrill doctrine
  - findings, when Court requires Congress to make, 3.52
  - interpretation of, as distinct from interpretation of statutes, 3.11
  - judicial power, 3.10; 3.11; 9.50
  - legislative powers, 2.10, 4.50, 4.51; see also Congress
  - limitations on legislative powers, 4.52
  - Merrill doctrine, see Merrill doctrine
  - severability and non-severability, 7.63; 9.70
  - style used for, 8.70
  - tensions between courts and Congress, 3.13; 9.50
  - tensions between President and Congress, 10.10
  - unconstitutionality, see unconstitutionality
- Constitution of the United States, see Constitution

- constitutional amendment, see also joint resolution
- action by Congress to confirm validity of ratification, 5.40
  - joint resolution used to propose, 2.12; 5.50; Appendix 7
  - not presented to President, 2.20; 5.50
  - ratification of by states, 5.50
  - reminding client that proposing one is an option, 4.25
  - style used for, 8.70
  - two-thirds majority required to propose, 2.20; 5.50
- construction of statutes, see statutory interpretation
- construction, rule of, see rules of construction
- contract authority of federal government, 4.61
- Coode, George, 4.30
- cosponsor, see sponsor
- cost estimate (in committee report), 2.25
- coupled synonyms, avoid using, 6.30
- Court, see Supreme Court of the United States
- Craft, Edward O., 6.80
- crime, interpretation under “rule of lenity” of statute creating, 3.82
- cross-references, see also references
  - provide in a manner that best aids the reader, 6.25
  - redesignating, 9.34
- cut-and-bite method, 9.31
- dash list, 7.32
- deadlines, 4.47
- Dear Colleague letter, 6.15
- Dean, Judge, 4.27
- debt authority of federal government, 4.61
- decisions relating to draft, see issues
- deference, requirement that drafter defer to client, 1.12
- definitions, see also Dictionary Act
  - generally, 7.50
  - as a means by which Congress regulates statutory interpretation, 3.14
  - avoid terms that are inconsistent with other federal definitions, 6.24
  - “fiscal year,” 7.50
  - “person,” 6.16; 6.24
  - should be avoided when they merely state the obvious, 6.15
  - “state,” 6.16; 6.24
  - use of in statutory interpretation, 3.42; 3.81
- Delegate (in House of Representatives), see member of House of Representatives
- delegation of power to executive branch, 3.60
- Department of Justice, 3.61
- description, laws should not include unnecessary details, 6.15
- designation of a measure (“H. Con. Res.”), 5.11
- Dickerson, Reed,
  - generally, 1.40; 4.23; 4.26; 6.80; 6.90; 7im; 9.00; 9.40
  - drafter “leads the client, but where the client wants to go,” 4.21
  - views on statutory interpretation, 3.01; 3.23
- dictators, “even a dictator finds it convenient to be understood,” 6.25
- dictionaries,
  - distinction between prescriptive and descriptive, 3.24
  - used to find plain meaning, 3.24
- Dictionary Act, see also definitions
  - use of in statutory interpretation, 3.42
- directory commands, see commands
- discretion, rules of, see rules of discretion
- discretionary authority vs. mandatory authority, 4.43
- Disraeli, 4.21
- District of Columbia,
  - delegate from, 2.10
  - whether the term “state” includes, 4.11; 6.16

- division, 7.40
- “dog that didn’t bark,” 3.72
- draft (as a noun),
  - accuracy of, see accuracy
  - as output, not essence, of drafting, 1.10
  - effectiveness of, see effectiveness
  - legal sufficiency of, see effectiveness
  - organization of, see organizing and arranging
  - perfect draft (no such thing as), 6.90
  - “proposed legislation” (for Circular A-19 purposes) distinguished, 10.42
  - reviewing someone else’s, see reviewing someone else’s draft
  - starting with someone else’s, see start from scratch when you can
  - to mean text prepared by drafter for client, 1.00
  - to mean written expression of a policy, 1.11
  - tendency to become “crystallized” when circulated, 2.16; 4.21
- draft (as a verb), see drafting
- drafter, see also agency drafter; draft; drafting; drafter-client relationship; Office of the Legislative Counsel; professional obligations of drafter
  - generally, Chapter 1
  - “all-wise man,” 2.16
  - as advisor, 1.11
  - as architect, 3.90; 9.00
  - as “chronic complainer,” 6.90
  - as “emotional oyster,” 1.40
  - as engineer, 3.90
  - as “intellectual eunuch,” 1.40
  - as mechanic, 3.90; 4.26
  - as “slave,” 1.43
  - as specialist, 1.00; 4.24
  - as surgeon, 4.26
  - as “Vermont schoolmarm,” see “Vermont schoolmarm”
  - as “word weenie,” 1.40
  - as “worst person to construe” own draft, 3.79
  - attorney as drafter, see attorney
    - attributes of, 1.40
    - duties other than to client, 1.11; 6.00
    - full-time, 1.00
    - in the executive branch, see agency drafter
    - knowledge needed, generally, 1.41
    - knowledge of Constitution needed, 4.53
    - “legislative counsel type,” 1.43
    - non-attorney as drafter, see non-attorney, drafting by
    - objectivity needed, 1.13; 4.23; see also skepticism
    - opinion of, use in statutory interpretation, 3.79
    - part-time, 1.00
    - private sector, 1.00
    - professional, 2.16
    - public sector, 1.00
    - recruitment and retention of, 1.43
    - resources important to, 1.50; Appendix 2; Appendix 3
    - skeptical, drafter must be, see skepticism
    - skills of, 1.42
    - to mean one who drafts, 1.00
    - training of, 1.00; 1.43
    - wide variety of drafters, 1.00
  - drafter-client relationship, see also drafting process; professional obligations of drafter
    - as agent to principal, 1.11
    - as attorney to client, 1.11
    - accuracy is drafter’s ultimate duty, 6.00; 6.31
    - attorney-client privilege, 1.31
    - avoiding damage to the statute book, 9.70
    - clarity is the way to accuracy, 6.00
    - clarity is less important than precision, 6.31
    - deference by drafter to client, 1.12; 1.42; 4.20
    - duties of client, 1.11; 6.00
    - duties of drafter, 1.11; 4.20; 6.00
    - engaging the client, 4.21
    - executive branch, special considerations when drafting in, see agency drafter
    - fiduciary nature, 1.11

- influence of drafter on policymaking, 1.13; 4.23
- influence of client on drafting, 1.12
- information provided by client, 4.20; 4.24
- malpractice, 1.31
- objectivity, 4.23; see also skepticism
- professional standards, 1.31
- skepticism, drafter must adopt posture of, see skepticism
- unauthorized practice of law, 1.31
- drafting, see also draft; drafter; drafting process
  - as distinct from policymaking, 1.11
  - as “not just a technical job,” 1im
  - as “slavery,” 1.43
  - as specialty, 1.00
  - as thinking, 1.00; 4.00; 6.90; see also thinking through the policy
  - as writing, 1.00; 1.10; 4.00; see also writing effectively
  - avoiding damage to the statute book, 9.70
  - by attorney, see attorney, drafting by
  - by committees of Congress, historically, 2.13; 2.16
  - by non-attorney, see non-attorney, drafting by
  - by professionals, 2.16
  - essence of, 1.10; 6.90
  - for Congress, 1.00; see also Office of the Legislative Counsel
  - for other legislatures, see other legislatures
  - holistic, drafting needs to be, 3.90
  - influence of information technology on, Appendix 1
  - influence of policymaker on, 1.12
  - judgments about accuracy, see accuracy
  - judgments about effectiveness, see effectiveness
  - practicum, Appendix 10
  - resources important to, 1.50; Appendix 2; Appendix 3
  - Supreme Court’s generalizations about congressional drafting, 3.83
- drafting errors, see errors
- drafting issues,
  - compared with policy issues, 1.10; 1.12; 1.13
  - drafter may use discretion in filling policy gaps, 4.23
  - examples, 1.13
  - for the drafter to resolve, 1.10
  - “good government” considerations, 1.11
- drafting manuals, courts should pay more attention to in interpreting statutes, 3.13
- drafting process, see also drafting
  - generally, 1.20; 6.90; Appendix 6; Appendix 10
  - analyzing alternatives, 4.25
  - asking for details, 4.23
  - “complete job,” 2.16
  - conducting a reality check, 4.27
  - creating a coherent solution, 4.26
  - “crystallization” of draft when circulated, 2.16; 4.21
  - engaging the client, 4.21
  - figuring out the problem and the objective, 4.22
  - fundamental tasks, 1.10
  - “hasty” first draft results in deliberation and amendments, 5im
  - “mature” first draft can progress rapidly, 5im
  - presenting issues, 1.10
  - purpose of, 1.20
  - researching the facts and law, 4.24; 9.41
  - resolving issues, 1.10
  - skepticism, drafter must adopt posture of, see skepticism
  - spotting issues, see spotting issues
  - starting from scratch, see start from scratch when you can
  - steps of, 1.20
  - thinking through the policy, see thinking through the policy
  - writing, 1.10; see also writing effectively
- draftsman, see drafter
- Driedger, Elmer, 4.30
- drowning, failing to aid someone who is, 4.11

- duck-billed platypus, 5.00
- Dumbauld, Edward, 2.26
- effective dates,
  - generally, 7.64
  - avoid those that are triggered by an unpublished event, 6.18
- effectiveness, see also thinking through the policy; writing effectively
  - generally, 1.11; 1.20
  - clear writing leads to effectiveness, 6.00
  - conducting a reality check, 4.27
  - creating a coherent solution, 4.26
  - default rule is that a law remains effective forever, 9.20
  - readability, 6.18; 6.25; 7.10
- Einstein, Albert, 4.14
- ejusdem generis (of the same kind), 3.84
- elections, 2.10; 2.11
- electoral college, 2.12
- Eliot, Thomas H., 1im; 1.10
- enacting clause,
  - generally, 5.16; 5.23
  - archaic use of multiple enacting clauses, 8.10
- enactment by reference, 6.19
- enforcement, problems of, 4.14
- England, see United Kingdom
- engrossed measure, see engrossment of a measure
- engrossment of a measure,
  - generally, 2.26
  - correcting errors in, see errors
- enrolled measure, see enrollment of a measure
- enrolling clerk,
  - generally, 2.14
  - engrossment of a measure, 2.26
  - enrollment of a measure, 2.30; 2.31; 2.40
- enrollment of a measure,
  - generally, 2.30; 2.31; 2.40
  - conflict between enrolled version and later published version of same law, 2.90
  - correcting errors in, see errors
  - enrolled measure as “conclusive” evidence of law, 2.90
- entitlement authority of federal government, 4.61
- errors,
  - “beyond our province to rescue Congress from its drafting errors,” 3.20
  - conflict between published versions of same law, 2.90
  - correction of, in an engrossed measure, 2.26
  - correction of, in an enrolled measure, 2.41
  - failures of imagination, 4.00; 4.10
  - in enacted law, treatment in United States Code, 2.88
  - in publication of law, 2.89
  - “scrivener’s error,” statutory interpretation of, 3.22
  - thinking errors, 4.10
- ethics of drafter, see professional obligations of drafter
- evidence of law,
  - enrolled measure as “conclusive” evidence, 2.90
  - slip law as “competent” evidence, 2.90
  - Statutes at Large as “legal” evidence, 2.90
  - United States Code as “prima facie” evidence or “legal” evidence, 2.90
- examples, avoid using in bill language, 6.31
- executive branch,
  - generally, see President of the United States
  - comment on legislation, 10.12
  - drafting in, Chapter 10
  - management of, see OMB
- executive business of Senate,
  - generally, 2.12
  - executive resolutions once used to carry out, 5.11
  - votes (rather than measures) used to carry out, 5.00; 5.11
- executive history, see presidential signing statements

- Executive Office of the President, 10.11, 10.20; see also OMB; President of the United States
- Executive Order 12866, 10.02; 10.22; Appendix 9
- Executive Order 12988, 10.42; Appendix 9
- executive resolution, 5.11
- experts, use of in drafting, 4.24
- expressio unius est exclusio alterius* (the inclusion of one is the exclusion of others), 3.85
- extraterritorial application of law, generally, 7.64 clear statement rule required, 3.52
- faithfulness, see accuracy
- false imperative, 6.60
- Federal Advisory Committee Act, 9.41
- Federal drafting styles, see also appropriations style; code style; modified revenue style; revenue style; style of 1789; traditional style
generally, Chapter 8; Appendix 8
all styles use the same method for subdividing a section, 7.30 each style uses its own method for “big levels,” 7.40 modified revenue style is default style for modern drafting, 8.50 traditional style sometimes used for certain resolutions, 8.50
- federal laws, see also publication of laws; United States Code
drafter needs general knowledge of, 1.41
- Federal Register, Office of the, see Archives of the United States
- Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, maverick style used for, 8.70
- Federalism principles in the Constitution, 4.50; 4.52
- Federalist Papers, 3im
- Field v. Clark*, rule in, 2.90
- findings,
importance when power of Congress to act is in doubt, 3.53 should generally be avoided, 6.15
use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
with zing and flair, 1.12
- “first section” (vs. “section 1”), generally, 7.20; 8.10 in appropriations style, 8.20 in traditional style, 8.30
- fiscal year, 10.31
- Fisher, Louis, 10.30
- floor action,
generally, 2.26
Committee of the Whole, see Committee of the Whole messaging measure to other chamber, 2.26 statements made during, use in statutory interpretation, 3.76 vote on final passage, 2.26
- flush matter, 7.32
- fonts and graphics, avoid if they are hard to read, 6.18
- foresight, required of a drafter, 1im; 1.42
- formulas, provide so as to best aid the reader, 6.25
- Frankfurter, Felix,
“loose judicial reading makes for loose legislative writing,” 3.90
“read the statute,” 3im
“when the legislative history is doubtful, go to the statute,” 3.30
- fraud, by drafter or client, see professional obligations of drafter
- freestanding measure, 9.00, 9.40; see also affecting without amending; amending another law
- Friendly, Henry, 3im; 6im
- gender-neutrality,
“Chairman,” 2.13
masculine includes the feminine (but not vice versa), 3.14
pronouns, 6.64
- general provisions, specific provisions prevail over, see reconciling provisions that conflict

- general terms,
  - lists, interpretation of when used in, 3.84
- general and permanent law, United States Code as containing, 2.86
- General Welfare Clause, see spending power
- generality and precision,
  - over-generality, 6.16
  - over-precision, 6.15
  - under-generality, 6.16
- "ghosts ... in the law," 4.32
- Gladstone, 4.21
- "good government" considerations,
  - considered by drafters, 1.11
  - considered by courts, 3.11
- Government Printing Office,
  - calendar print, 2.26
  - printing of measure as amended by second chamber, 2.30
  - printing of measure as enrolled, 2.40
  - printing of measure as introduced, 2.22
  - printing of measure for floor, 2.26
  - printing of measure as passed one chamber, 2.26
  - printing of measure in other chamber, 2.30
  - printing of report by committee, 2.25
  - Style Manual, 1.50; 6.00
- Graham-Harrison, Sir William, 1.43
- grammar,
  - law may have single plain meaning even though awkward and ungrammatical, 3.25
  - use of in interpreting statutes, 3.37
- grant programs, based on power to tax and spend for the general welfare, 4.51
- Graves, Robert, and Alan Hodge, 6im
- Gray, John Chipman, 4.10
- Great Lakes, 4.11
- Guam,
  - delegate from, 2.10
  - whether the term "state" includes, 4.11; 6.16
- guidelines, 10.02; see also regulations
- H. designations (H.R., H. Con. Res., H. J. Res., H. Res.), 5.11
- "H.L.C." appearing on certain measures, 5.18
- habeas corpus review, clear statement required to prevent, 3.52
- Hale, Sir Matthew, 9im
- Hand, Learned, "words are not pebbles," 3.32
- headings,
  - as drafting issue, 1.13
  - be consistent in how you draft them, 6.24
  - cannot overturn plain meaning, 3.25
  - use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- hearings (of committees),
  - generally, see committees
  - use of testimony in statutory interpretation, 3.77
- highway law, 4.24
- Hirsch, Donald, 4.13; Appendix 6
- history, use by courts in interpreting statutes, 3.11
- Hodge, Alan, and Robert Graves, 6im
- Holmes, Oliver Wendell (Jr.),
  - "ghosts . . . in the law," 4.32
  - "prophecies of what the courts will do in fact . . . are what I mean by the law," 3im
  - views on legislative intent, 3.22
  - "word is not a crystal . . . [but] the skin of a living thought," 3.32
- honorific of a member (Mr., Mrs., or Ms.), 5.14
- "hopper," for introducing a measure in the House, 2.21
- Horack, Frank Edward (Jr.), 3.90; 9.35
- horses, 2im
- hortatory commands, see commands
- House, see House of Representatives
- House of Representatives, see also Congress; Office of the Legislative Counsel (of the House of Representatives)
  - as not a continuing body, 2.11

- clerks of, 2.14
- “House (of Congress)” as ambiguous term, 2.10
- leadership of, 2.10; 2.11
- member of, see member of House of Representatives
- Speaker of, see Speaker of the House
- how laws are made, see legislative process
- Hugo, Victor, 2im
- Hull, David, 6.25
- Hutton, Noel, 4im
- “I’m Just a Bill,” 5im
- If-Then model,
- generally, 4.30; 4.32
  - particular value in testing rules of discretion, 4.43
- impeachment, functions of House and Senate, 2.12
- imperative mood, 6.54
- implied exceptions, rule against, 3.85
- implied repeal, 9.10
- in pari materia, 3.41
- inconsistency, see consistency
- incorporation by reference, see also affecting without amending; body of law
- generally, 9.61
  - incorporating a definition by reference, 7.50; 9.61
- Indian tribes, whether the term “state” includes, 4.11
- indicative mood, 6.54
- individual, see natural person
- individual statements, use in statutory interpretation, 3.76
- inflation, adjusting for, 4.13
- influence,
- of client on drafting, 1.12
  - of drafter on policy, 1.13; 4.23
  - of politics on drafting, 1.12; 4.25; 7.10
- intent of Congress, see legislative intent
- intentionalism (as theory of statutory interpretation), 3.22
- interlocked units, see also lists
- generally, 7.32
  - be consistent in the form you use, 6.24
- interpretation of statutes, see statutory interpretation
- intransitive vs. transitive verbs, 4.31
- introduction of a measure, see legislative process; sponsor
- issues, see drafting issues; policy issues; spotting issues
- items, see smaller units
- Jefferson, Thomas, 8im; 9.20
- Joint Committee on Printing, 2.13
- joint resolution, see also legislative process; measure
- generally, 5.50; Appendix 7
  - long title of, 5.51
  - modified revenue style is default style for, 8.50
  - resolving clause of, 5.52
  - used to propose constitutional amendment, 5.53, Appendix 7; see also constitutional amendment
  - used to ratify reorganization plan, see reorganization plan
- joint statement of managers (of conference committee),
- preparation of, 2.31
  - use in statutory interpretation, 3.75
- Jones, Harry W., 4.00
- journal, each chamber responsible for keeping, 2.12
- judge, what kind of, 3.02
- judicial power, 3.10
- judicial review, see also administrative procedure
- clear statement required to prevent, 3.52
- Karst, Ken, Appendix 6
- Kimble, Joseph, 6.31
- Koempel, Michael L, Appendix 4
- Kofmehl, Kenneth Theodore, 1.43
- Koons decision, 3.13; 6.55; 7.30

- Landis, James M., 4im; 4.21; 7.10
- last-enacted rule, see priority of enactment
- Latin expressions, avoid using, 6.18; 6.30
- law review articles, use by courts in interpreting statutes, 3.11
- Law Revision Counsel, Office of, see Office of Law Revision Counsel
- laws, see also body of law
- affecting and amending, see amending other law
  - evidence of, see evidence of law
  - how they are made, see legislative process
  - interpretation of, see statutory interpretation
  - publication of, see publication of laws
  - researching, 4.24; 9.41
- “laws are like sausages,” 2im
- lawyer, see attorney
- “lead” agency, 10.11
- leadership of Congress,
- generally, 2.10
  - transition, 2.11
- legal action (as element of legal sentence), generally, 4.30; 4.31; 6.50
- identify before drafting the sentence, 6.40
- legal actor, see legal subject
- Legal Counsel, Office of, see Office of Legal Counsel
- legal knowledge and skills, importance in drafting, 1.31
- legal malpractice, see malpractice
- legal person, 4.31; 6.16
- legal rules, see also Actor-Action model, If-Then Model
- elements of (as classified by Coode), 4.30
  - major types of, 4.40
  - vast system of, 4.41
- legal sentence, 4.30
- legal subject (as element of legal sentence), generally, 4.30; 4.31; 6.60
- identify before drafting the sentence, 6.40
- legal sufficiency of draft, see effectiveness
- legal writing,
- drafter should already have mastered, 6.00
  - tendency to be stuffy and convoluted, 1.31
- Legislative Affairs Office of OMB, 10.21
- legislative coordination and clearance, see also OMB
- generally, 10.22; 10.40
  - actions by OMB after receipt of agency submission, 10.43
  - “advice” by OMB to agency, 10.43
  - agencies with “bypass” authority, 10.44
  - executive branch comment on legislation, 10.12
  - history of, 10.30
  - purpose of, 10.11
- Statements of Administration Policy, 10.12; 10.22
- submission of legislative program by agency, 10.41
  - submission of “proposed legislation” by agency, 10.42
  - testimony of agency officers, 10.12; 10.30; 10.42
- legislative counsel, see drafter
- Legislative Counsel (Office of), see Office of the Legislative Counsel
- Legislative Counsel of the U.S. House of Representatives, 1im; see also Beaman, Middleton
- “legislative counsel type,” 1.43
- legislative drafter, see drafter
- legislative drafting, see drafting
- Legislative Drafting Research Fund at Columbia University, 2.16
- Legislative Drafting Service, 2.16; 2.85
- legislative draftsman, see drafter
- legislative history,
- generally, 3.70; 3.72
  - amendments proposed and adopted, 3.78
  - amendments proposed but rejected, 3.74
  - as “crowded cocktail party,” 3.21

- can be used to confirm plain meaning, 3.72
- cannot overturn plain meaning, 3.25
- drafter, opinion of, 3.79
- executive history, see presidential signing statements
- floor statements, 3.76
- hearing testimony, 3.77
- post-enactment statements, 3.73
- prohibiting courts from using, 3.14
- report language, 2.25; 3.75
- statements of individual members, 3.76
- subsequent legislative history, 3.74
- testimony at hearings, 3.77
- “when the legislative history is doubtful, go to the statute,” 3.30
- why it is problematic, 3.72
- why it is useful, common misconception about, 3.73
- legislative intent,
generally, 3.20
as distinct from legislative purpose, 3.20 as overriding goal of statutory interpretation, 3.20 determined as of enactment, 3.20 legislative history as evidence of, 3.72 questions that the legislature has failed to address, 4.10
- legislative measures, see measures
- legislative power, see also Congress vested in Congress, 2.10
- legislative process, see also measures; rules and precedents
generally, Chapter 2; Appendix 4 actions in other chamber, 2.30 as producing “rubbish,” 2im clerks of Congress, role of, 2.14
conference committee, 2.31
engrossment, see engrossment of a measure enrollment, see enrollment of a measure floor action, see floor action hearings, see committees last-minute corrections, 2.41 introduction of measure, 2.21; 5im markups, see committees measures, differences in legislative process relating to, 2.20 “messaging” to other chamber, 2.26 orders, 5.00
other chamber, actions in, 2.30 presentment of measures to President, see Presentment Clause President, role in, 10.10
reenactment, 9.35
referral of measures and other matters to committees, 2.13
resolving differences by amendment or conference, 2.30; 2.31
second chamber, actions in, 2.30 signature line for use by sponsor, 5.14 votes, 5.00
- legislative purpose, see legislative intent
- legislative ratification doctrine, see ratification doctrine
- Legislative Reference Division of OMB, 10.21
- legislative veto, see Chadha doctrine
- lenity, rule of, see rule of lenity
- Leventhal, Harold, 3.21; 4.10; 6.12; 9.40
- liabilities (as type of legal rule, according to Coode), 4.30
- liberal interpretation, 3.82
- Library of Congress,
Beaman as Law Librarian of, 2.16
Congressional Research Service, 2.16
- lists, see also interlocked units how courts interpret, 3.84
- long title,
generally, 5.15
as drafting issue, 1.13; 5.15
of bill, 5.22
of concurrent resolution, 5.41
of joint resolution, 5.51
of simple resolution, 5.31
use in statutory interpretation, 3.36; 5.15
- LRD, see Legislative Reference Division
- Macpherson, Don, Appendix 1

- Madison, James, 3im
- majority leader,
    of House of Representatives, 2.10
    of Senate, 2.10
- malpractice, 1.31
- manager of a conference committee, 2.31
- mandatory authority vs. discretionary authority, 4.43
- mandatory commands, see commands
- Marbury v. Madison*, 3.10
- marginal notes in slip laws, 2.62
- margins, ambiguities created by, 7.32
- Marshall, Justice, 3.10
- Marshall Field doctrine, 2.90
- masculine includes the feminine (but not vice-versa), 3.14
- “matter preceding” (or “matter following” or “matter at the end”), 7.32
- maverick styles, 8.70
- maxims (of statutory interpretation), 3.21; see generally statutory interpretation
- “may” and “may not,” 6.55, 6.56; see also commands; rules of discretion
- Mayer, Martin, 1im
- measures, see also bill; concurrent resolution; draft (as a noun); joint resolution; legislative process; simple resolution
    generally, Chapter 5; Appendix 7
    advising client about options, 4.25
    “body” or text of, 5.17 chamber identifier appearing on, 5.13 designation of (“H. Con. Res.”), 5.11 drafting of, 1.00
    drafting of by the executive branch, 10.11 enacting clause, appearing on, 5.16 long title, appearing on, 5.15 numbering of (“S. 79”), 5.11 printing of, see Government Printing Office referral information appearing on, 5.14 referral of to committees, 2.13 reintroduction of, 2.11 relationship to legislative powers, 2.12 resolving clause, appearing on, 5.16 session of Congress identifier appearing on, 5.12 sponsor information appearing on, 5.14 statistics relating to, 2.20 term of Congress identifier appearing on, 5.12 text or “body” of, 5.17
- Meese, Attorney General, 3.61
- Megarry, Sir Robert, 8im
- member of Congress, see also member of House of Representatives; Senator
    as ambiguous term, 2.10
    as drafters, historically, 2.16 each chamber responsible for seating, punishing, or expelling, 2.12 honorifics used by, 5.14 similar names list, 5.14
    statements of, use in statutory interpretation, 3.76
    term of, 2.11
- member of House of Representatives, see also member of Congress
    as ambiguous term, 2.10
    generally, 2.10
    delegate, 2.10
    “member” defined, 2.10 representative, 2.10 resident commissioner, 2.10
    term of, 2.11
- member of Senate, see Senator
- memorials to Congress, referral to committees, 2.13
- Merrill* doctrine, 4.41; 4.44; 4.61
- “messaging” measure from one chamber to the other, 2.26
- Middle English expressions, avoid using, 6.30
- Mikva, Abner J., 3.13
- Military Extraterritorial Jurisdiction Act of 2000, 2.20
- Mills, Wilbur D., 6.90; 7im; 7.10

- minority leader,
     of House of Representatives, 2.10
     of Senate, 2.10
- “model” drafts, see start from scratch when you can
- modified revenue style,
     generally, 8.50; Appendix 8
     “big levels” used in, 7.40
- “modified tax style,” 8.50
- modifiers,
     keep as close as possible to words they modify, 6.41 should generally use articles rather than indefinite adjectives, 6.63
- Moe, Ronald C., 10im
- mood, 6.54
- “must,” 6.55
- Napoleon, 6.31
- narrow interpretation, 3.82
- National Archives, see Archives of the United States
- National Nuclear Security Administration Act, 4.14
- natural person, 4.31; 6.16
- Necessary and Proper Clause, 4.51
- nominations, see executive business (of Senate)
- non-attorney, drafting by, see also professional obligations of drafter
     generally, 1.00; 1.31
     unauthorized practice of law, 1.31
- non-positive law, see positive law and non-positive law
- non-severability, 7.63; 9.70
- noncompliance with the law, see compliance with the law
- “normalization” (technique of writing If-Then statements), 4.33
- noscitur a sociis (thing is known by its companions), 3.32; 3.84
- “notwithstanding any other provision of law,” 4.44; 9.41
- noun chains, 6.65
- numbering of measures (“S. 79”), 5.11
- objectivity needed for a drafter, 1.13; see also skepticism
- obligations (as type of legal rule, according to Coode), 4.30
- Office of Law Revision Counsel (of House),
     generally, 2.17
     United States Code, codification and classification of new laws, 2.89
     United States Code, editorial changes to, 2.85
     United States Code, enactment of titles into positive law, 2.88
     United States Code, execution of amendatory instruction in manner that reflects probable intent of Congress, 2.90
     United States Code, publication of, 2.80
- Office of Legal Counsel (of Department of Justice), 3.61
- Office of Legal Counsel (of House or of Senate), 2.16
- Office of the Legislative Counsel (of House or of Senate), generally, 2.16; 7im; 7.32; 7.50
     appropriations measures, Offices not closely involved in drafting of, 8.20 author’s position in, 1.00
     Beaman’s position in, 1im; 1.40
     Dickerson’s position in, 1.40 drafting manuals, use by courts in interpreting statutes, 3.13
     history of, 2.16
     information placed on measures by, 5.18 law relating to (in true compilation form), 2.85
     “legislative counsel type,” 1.43
     “office style,” 8.00
     style used by, 8.50
- Office of Management and Budget, see OMB
- Office of the Parliamentarian, see also rules and precedents
     generally, 2.15
     introduction and referral of measures, role in, 2.22

- “office style,” 8.00
- “official title” of measure, see long title
- Old English expressions, avoid using, 6.30
- “old style,” 8.30
- OMB, see also budget of the President; legislative coordination and clearance
  - generally, Chapter 10
  - history of, 10.21
  - management of the executive branch, 10.22
  - major functions of, 10.22
  - organizational units of, 10.21
  - overview of, 10.20
  - preparation of Statements of Administration Policy, 10.12
  - regulatory and information policy, 10.22
  - regulatory review, 10.02
  - “scoring” of a measure’s budgetary effects, 10.12
- omissions, courts presume that omission is intentional in interpreting statutes, 3.35
- “only,” position in sentence changes meaning of sentence, 6.41
- “optics,” 1.12; 4.25; 7.10; see also policymaking
- orders and votes not considered legislative measures, 5.00
- ordinariness, 6.22; 6.30
- organizing and arranging, see also “big levels”; definitions; sections; smaller units; Whole Act Rule
  - generally, Chapter 7
  - appropriations bills, 7.20; 7.32
  - do so in a manner that is intuitive, 6.18; 6.25; 7.10
  - sequence, choosing, 7.10
- other laws, use in statutory interpretation, see body of law
- other legislatures,
  - Canada, 1.50
  - Commonwealth Association of Legislative Counsel, Appendix 1
  - drafting for, 1.00; 1.50; Appendix 1
  - resources relating to, Appendix 3
  - Russia, 1.40
  - United Kingdom, 1.43
- “other purposes,” use of in long title, 5.15
- outside the United States, clear statement required for law to apply, 3.52
- overbreadth, 6.17
- over-general, see generality and precision
- over-precision, see generality and precision
- oversight (of the executive branch by Congress), see congressional oversight
- paragraphs, see also smaller units
  - committees consider measures paragraph by paragraph, 1im
  - Court does not always use term in the specific way a drafter does, 3.36
  - used in drafting to mean a specific subdivision of section, 7.30
- Parkinson, Thomas I., 6.80
- Parliamentarian, see Office of the Parliamentarian
- parliamentary rules and precedents, see rules and precedents
- part (as a “big level”), see “big levels”
- partial definition, 7.50
- parties, political, 2.10
- party officers,
  - generally, 2.10
  - ranking minority member of committee, see ranking minority member
- passive voice vs. active voice, 4.31; 6.51
- Peacock, James Craig, 4.23; 4.24; 7.20; 7.30; 10im; 10.11
- Pearson, Norman M., 10.30
- perfectionism, 4im; 6.90
- Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (of House of Representatives), 2.13
- person, legally accountable, see legal person
- person, natural, see natural person
- petitions to Congress, referral to committees, 2.13
- plain English, see plain language

plain language, see also clarity; writing effectively

- avoid sentences that are long or complex, 6.18
- avoid style that is stuffy or unfamiliar, 6.18
- avoid words that are archaic or rare, 6.18; 6.30
- beware “Plain Language,” 6.31
- use plain English, 6.30

Plain Meaning Rule,

- generally, 3.23
- “absurd result” exception, 3.23; 3.26; 4.10
- agency interpretation, see Chevron deference
- “axiom of experience” rather than rule of law, 3.23
- common-sense meaning not literal meaning, 3.24
- consequences of rule, 3.25
- definitions, use of, 3.81
- dictionaries, use of, 3.24
- legislative history, can be used to confirm plain meaning, 3.72
- legislative history, cannot overturn plain meaning, 3.25
- lesser evidence (legislative history, headings, preambles) cannot overturn plain meaning, 3.25
- no plain meaning, what courts do when there is, 3.27
- ordinary or natural meaning when statute was enacted, 3.24
- presumption, sometimes phrased as, 3.23
- terms of art, use of, 3.81; 6.30
- unconstitutional, what courts do when plain meaning is, 3.26
- when courts find, but decline to apply, plain meaning, 3.26

plural, see singular

- pocket approval of measure by President, 2.52
- pocket veto of measure by President, 2.52
- Poldervaart, Arie, 7im

policy,

- defined, 1.10
- statement of, use in statutory interpretation, 3.36

policymaker, see client

policymaking, see also client; policy; policy issues

- as distinct from drafting, 1.11
- influence of executive branch drafter on, 10.01
- influence of drafter on, 1.13; 4.23
- judgments about politics, 1.11; 4.25
- judgments about substance, 1.11
- politics, influence on drafting, 1.12; 1.20; 4.25; 7.10

policy analysts within OMB, 10.21 policy issues, see also policy; policymaking; thinking through the policy

- asking for details, 4.23
- compared with drafting issues, 1.10; 1.12
- “deciding whether to decide” is a policy issue, 4.23
- “deciding who decides” is a policy issue, 4.23
- every issue is a policy issue, 1.12
- figuring out the finer points, 4.23
- for the client to resolve, 1.10

political parties, see parties

“politically binding,” report language as, 2.25 politics, see policymaking

Pomerantz, Hart, Appendix 6

popular name, 7.61 positive law and non-positive law, see also United States Code

- generally, 2.83; Appendix 5
- codification and classification of new laws, 2.89
- non-positive law cannot be directly amended, 2.83; 2.84
- United States Code, enactment of titles into positive law, 2.88
- United States Code, non-positive-law titles not reliable in drafting, 2.90
- United States Code, origin as non-positive law, 2.84

- post-enactment statements, 3.73
- powers (as type of legal rule, according to Coode), 4.30
- practice of law, see also professional obligations of drafter
  - drafting as, 1im
- pragmatism (as theory of statutory interpretation), 3.22
- preambles,
  - cannot overturn plain meaning, 3.25
  - use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- precatory commands, see commands
- precedent, judicial, courts bound to follow, 3.11
- precedents, parliamentary, see rules and precedents
- “precise mud,” 6.31
- precision, see generality and precision
- predecessor statutes, see also priority of enactment
  - use of in statutory interpretation, 3.43
- prediction, problems of, 4.15
- preempting Congress from acting in the future, 9.50
- preemption of state law, clear statement rules relating to, 3.52
- Presentment Clause,
  - generally, 2.50; 2.51
  - approval or disapproval, 2.52
  - Chadha* doctrine, see Chadha doctrine
  - concurrent resolutions are not presented, 2.20
  - constitutional amendments are not presented, 2.20
  - errors, last-minute corrections of, 2.41
  - simple resolutions are not presented, 2.20
  - what it means to “make law,” see Chadha doctrine
- present tense,
  - generally, 6.52
  - includes the future tense (but not vice versa), 3.14
- President of the Senate, 2.10
- President of the United States, see also agencies; OMB; legislative coordination and clearance
  - actions that affect how statutes are interpreted, 3.60
  - approval or disapproval of measures, 2.52; 10.40
  - budget of, see budget of the President
  - clear statement required for law to apply to, 3.52
  - executive powers, 4.52; 10.10
  - function of House in choosing when no electoral majority, 2.12
  - legislative proposals by, see Recommendations Clause
  - officers in line of succession, 2.10
  - presentment of measures to, see Presentment Clause
  - role in legislation, 10.10
  - signing statements of, see presidential signing statements
  - take care that laws be faithfully executed, see “Take Care” Clause
- President pro tempore (of the Senate), 2.10
- presidential signing statements,
  - anecdote relating to, 2.41
  - use in statutory interpretation, 3.61
- printing of measures, see Government Printing Office
- priority of enactment (in statutory interpretation),
  - attempting to bind future Congress, 9.50
  - “last enacted rule” does not exist in federal law, 9.10
  - later acts can “shape or focus” meaning of earlier acts, 3.41
  - predecessor statutes, use of in interpreting statute, 3.43
- private bill, see private relief bill
- private law, see private relief bill;
- publication of laws
- private relief bill,
  - generally, 5.20; Appendix 7
  - long title of, 5.22
  - private law number, 2.61
  - publication in Statutes at Large, 2.63

- privileges (as type of legal rule, according to Coode), 4.30
- probable intent of Congress, execution of amendatory instruction in manner that reflects,
- in compilation, 2.70
  - in United States Code, 2.88; 2.89
- professional malpractice, see malpractice
- professionalization of drafting, 2.16
- professional obligations of drafter, see also attorney; non-attorney, drafting by
- generally, 1.30
  - attorney-client privilege, 1.31
  - avoiding criminal conduct, 1.30
  - avoiding damage to the statute book, 9.70
  - avoiding fraudulent conduct, 1.30; 7.10
  - duty to ask questions, 4.20
  - malpractice, 1.31
  - objectivity needed, 1.13; see also skepticism
  - professional standards, 1.31
  - promoting “good government,” 1.11
  - skepticism, drafter must adopt posture of, see skepticism
  - unauthorized practice of law, 1.31
- professional responsibility of drafter, see professional obligations of drafter
- program examiners within OMB, 10.21
- Prohibition (of alcohol), 4.14
- prohibition from acting, see commands
- pronouns, 6.64
- “proposed legislation” (for purposes of Circular A-19), 10.40
- provisoes, 8.10
- public policy, use by courts in interpreting statutes, 3.11
- publication of laws, see also slip laws; Statutes at Large; United States Code
- generally, 2.60
  - private law number, 2.61
  - public law number, 2.61
- public law, see publication of laws
- Puerto Rico,
- resident commissioner from, 2.10
  - whether the term “state” includes, 4.11; 6.16
- punctuation,
- generally, 6.70
  - in amendatory instructions, 9.31
  - law may have single plain meaning even though it has punctuation errors, 3.25
  - serial comma, 6.71
  - use of in interpreting statutes, 3.37
  - use when amending other law, 6.72
- purpose,
- “and for other purposes,” use of in long title, 5.15
  - avoid using statement of purpose, 6.31
  - legislative purpose, as distinct from legislative intent, 3.20
  - statement of purposes, use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- qualifiers and exceptions, whether they should apply, 4.11
- questions, how to ask, see asking questions
- “rabbit bill,” Appendix 6
- Rabelais, Francois, 9im
- Radischev, Alexander, 1.40
- Railway Labor Act, maverick style used for, 8.70
- ranking member, see ranking minority member
- ranking minority member,
- as head of minority party within committee of Congress, 2.13
  - as head of minority party within subcommittee, 2.13
- ratification doctrine, 9.35
- “read twice,” Senate rules providing for measures to be, 5.14
- readability,
- generally, 6.18; 6.25
  - arrangement of words in sentence as affecting, 6.41
  - interlocked units as improving, 7.32
  - numbering of sections as affecting, 7.00

- style as affecting, 8.00
- subdividing sections as affecting, 7.30
- Reagan administration, 3.61
- reality check, 4.27
- Recommendations Clause, 3.60; 10.10
- reconciling laws that conflict, see also affecting without amending; amending other law; reconciling provisions (within same law) that conflict
  - generally, 9.10
  - attempting to bind future Congress, 9.50
  - specific statute prevails over general statute, 9.10; 9.50
- reconciling provisions (within same law) that conflict, see also affecting without amending; amending other law; body of law; reconciling laws that conflict
  - generally, 3.44
  - courts reluctant to imply additional exceptions to general rules, 3.85
  - specific provision prevails over general provision, 3.35; 3.41
- redesignating, 7.40; 9.34
- reenactment, 9.35
- references, see also cross-references; incorporation by reference
  - generally, 9.60
  - provide so as to best aid the reader, 6.25
  - redesignating, 9.34
  - to interlocked units, 7.32
  - to popular names, 7.61
  - to sections, 7.00
  - to short titles, 7.61
  - to smaller units, 7.30
  - to undesignated units, 7.33
- referential legislation, 9.61
- referral to committees, see specific topics (referral of measure, see measure)
- Regina v. Ojibway*, 3.00; Appendix 6
- regulations, see also agencies; Chevron deference; OMB
  - drafting of, 10.02
  - regulatory policy, 10.22
- reintroduction, request for, 2.11
- remedial legislation interpreted broadly, 3.82
- remedies (as consequences that apply when law is violated), 4.32
- reorganization plan, 2.63
- repeal,
  - generally, 9.20
  - by implication, 9.10
  - repealed laws not included in United States Code, 2.86
  - “strike” vs. “repeal,” 9.31
- reporting a measure out of committee, see committees
- report language,
  - advising client about options, 4.25
  - of committee report, 2.25
  - of conference committee, 2.31
  - use in statutory interpretation, 3.75
- reports submitted to Congress,
  - deadline for submission, consequences of a failure to comply with, 4.47
  - deadline for submission, over-precision in specifying deadline date, 6.15
  - effective dates that are triggered when report is submitted, 6.18
  - procedures in Congress relating to, 2.13
- representative (in House of Representatives), see member of House of Representatives
- representative (generic term), whether the term includes an elected judge, 4.11
- requirement to act, see commands
- researching the facts and law, 4.23; 9.41
- resident commissioner (in House of Representatives), see member of House of Representatives
- resolution,
  - as a form of measure, 1.00
  - are “agreed to” rather than “passed,” 5.10
  - are “submitted” rather than “introduced,” 2.21; 5.10
- resolution, concurrent, see concurrent resolution

- resolution, executive, see executive resolution
- resolution, joint, see joint resolution
- resolution, simple, see simple resolution
- resolution of inquiry, 5.21
- resolving clause,
generally, 5.16
of concurrent resolution, 5.42
of joint resolution, 5.52
of simple resolution, 5.32
- resource management offices of OMB, 10.21
- restatement, court presumes Congress does not intend to change law when merely restating it, 3.26
- restatement method, 9.32
- retroactive application of law, clear statement rule required, 3.52
- revenue, bill for raising, must originate in House, 2.20
- revenue style,
generally, 8.40; Appendix 8
“big levels” used in, 7.40
- review of agency action, see administrative procedure
- reviewing someone else’s draft, 4.21, 6.90;
see also start from scratch when you can
- Revised Statutes, of 1873, 2.81; 7.30
of 1878, 2.82
- rights (as type of legal rule, according to Coode), 4.30
- RMO, see resource management offices
- Rogers, Will, 6im
- “rubbish,” legislative process as producing, 2im
- rule against implied exceptions, 3.85
- rule against superfluities, 3.34; 9.10
- rule against surplusage, 3.34
- rule of lenity, 3.82
- rulemaking, see administrative procedure; agencies; regulations
- rules, legal, see legal rules
- rules, parliamentary, see rules and precedents
- rules and precedents, see also Office of the Parliamentarian advising client about, 4.25; 4.60 appropriations and authorizations, 7.62 budgetary issues, 4.61; 7.62
drafter needs general knowledge of rules, 1.41; 1.42; 4.25; 4.60 establishment of chamber rules by simple resolution, 2.12 introduced measure examined for compliance with, 2.22
reenactment, 9.35
referral to committees, 2.13; 2.22; 7.10 use of bill to make a chamber rule permanent, 5.20
- rules of civil procedure, 3.14
- rules of command, see commands
- rules of construction, 3.14
- rules of discretion,
generally, 4.41, 4.43
arbitrariness, 6.13
indicative mood should be used, 6.54
“may,” 6.55
“may not,” 6.56
review (judicial or administrative) of agency’s exercise of discretion, 4.48
- rules of evidence, 3.14
- rules of stipulation, see stipulations
- Russia, drafting in, 1.40
- S. designations (S., S. Con. Res., S. J. Res., S. Res.), 5.11
- “S.L.C.” appearing on certain measures, 5.18
- SAP, see Statement of Administration Policy
- “sausages,” laws are like, 2im
- Schmitt, Glenn R., 2.20
- Schneider, Judy, Appendix 4
- Schoolhouse Rock, 5im
- “scoring” by OMB of a measure’s budgetary effects, 10.12

- scratch, starting from, see start from scratch when you can
- scrivener, drafter not a scrivener, 1.11
- Secretary of the Senate,
generally, 2.14
certifying an engrossed measure, 2.26
- sections, see also “big levels”; smaller units
generally, 7.00; 7.20
appropriations bills, use of sections in, 8.20
be consistent in how you structure, 6.24 “first section” (vs. “section 1”), see “first section”
interlocked units, see interlocked units lists, see interlocked units numbering of, 7.00, 7.20 should each cover a single topic only, 7.00
subdividing into smaller units, 7.30
- Securities Act of 1933, 7.10
- Select Committee on Intelligence (of Senate), 2.13
- semicolon, 6.71
- Senate, see also Congress; Office of the Legislative Counsel (of the Senate) as continuing body, 2.11
clerks of, 2.14
member of, see senator
leadership of, 2.10; 2.11
- senator, see also Member of Congress
generally, 2.10
term of, 2.11
- sense of Congress,
as hortatory command, 4.47 reminding client that proposing one is an option, 4.25
use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- sentences, see also legal subject; plain language; verbs; writing effectively how to draft effectively, 6.40 should not string more than five together without subdividing, 7.30
- separation of powers, 4.50; 4.52
- sequence, see organizing and arranging
- serial comma, 6.71
- session and term of Congress, as identified on a measure, 5.12
- severability, 7.63; 9.70
- Shakespeare, 3.11; 3.14
- “shall” and “shall not,” 6.55, 6.56;
see also commands
- short title,
generally, 7.61
appropriations bills, short title appears at end rather than beginning, 8.20 catchy, 1.12 forming acronym, 1.11
in reintroductions, 2.11
use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
when one law amends another, which short title to use, 2.70
- “should,” see commands
- signature line on measure for use by sponsor, 5.14
- signing statements, see presidential signing statements
- simple resolution, see also legislative process; measure
generally, 5.30; Appendix 7 executive resolution, see executive resolution
long title of, 5.31
not presented to President, 2.20
resolving clause of, 5.32
traditional style is sometimes used for, 8.50 used for special rules by Committee on Rules, 2.26
used to correct errors in an engrossed measure, 2.26
used to establish chamber rules, 2.12
- simplicity, 6.21
- simplify concepts, 4.26; see also thinking through the policy
- singular,
includes the plural (and vice versa),
3.14
should generally be used instead of plural, 6.62

- skepticism, drafter must adopt a posture of, 4.20; 4.27; 6.90
- skills (of a drafter), “highest in the practice of law,” 1im
- slip laws, see also publication of laws
 generally, 2.62
 as “competent” evidence of law, 2.90 conflict with Code version or Statutes at Large version, 2.90 conflict with enrolled bill version, 2.90
 drafter should have access to, 1.50
 publication of appendix in cases of enactment by reference, 6.19
- smaller units (within a section), see also interlocked units
 generally, 7.00; 7.20; 7.30
 lists, see interlocked units
 referring to, 7.31
 undesignated paragraphs in appropriations bills, 8.20 undesignated units, 7.33 use of in appropriations style, 8.20 use of in style of 1789, 8.10
- Smokey Bear, 6.15
- social context, use by courts in interpreting statutes, 3.11; 6.10
- sound of a cat, 3.11
- sovereign immunity, clear statement rules relating to, 3.52
- sovereignty,
 generally, 4.41
 state sovereignty as limitation on federal power, 4.52
- Speaker of the House (of Representatives), 2.10
- special rules (of Committee on Rules), 2.26
- specific controls general, generally, see reconciling laws that conflict; reconciling provisions (within same law) that conflict
 incorporation by reference, 9.61
- spending power, 4.50, 4.51
- “spin,” 1.12; see also policymaking
- sponsor,
 “by request,” 2.21
 cosponsor, distinction between, 2.21 identification of on face of measure, 5.14 introduction of measure, 2.21 reintroduction of measure, 2.11
 signature line on measure for use by, 5.14
 statements of, use in statutory interpretation, 3.76
- spotting issues, 1im
 as fundamental part of drafting, 1.10
 budgetary issues, 4.61; 7.62
 constitutional issues, 4.50, 4.53; see also Constitution; unconstitutionality drafter to do so in “terrier-like” fashion, 1.10; 4.20 must be able to spot every ambiguity, 6.00 parliamentary issues, 4.25, 4.60; see also rules and precedents political issues, 4.25; see also politics
- standing orders, 5.00
- stare decisis, 3.11
- Stark, Jack, 3.13; 4.21; 7.32
- start from scratch when you can,
 generally, 4.21; 4.22; 6.80
 borrowed statute doctrine, 9.35; 9.61
 draft tends to become “crystallized” when circulated, 2.16; 4.21 good first draft “requires but few amendments,” 5im incorporation by reference, 9.61
- Statement of Administration Policy, 10.12; 10.22; Appendix 4
- statement of findings, use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- statement of policy, use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- statement of purposes, see purpose
- “State of the Union” address, 10.10
- states (of the United States), assumptions about states are tricky, 4.11 clear statement rules relating to state sovereignty, 3.52

- sovereignty of, see sovereignty
- whether term includes District of Columbia, territories, and Indian tribes, 4.11; 6.16
- Statsky, William P., 4.11
- Statutes at Large,
  - generally, 2.63
  - as “legal” evidence of law, 2.90
  - conflict with Code version or slip law version, 2.90
  - conflict with enrolled bill version, 2.90
  - early volumes made obsolete by Revised Statutes, 2.81
  - not a code of laws, 2.80
  - publication of appendix in cases of enactment by reference, 6.19
  - United States Code distinguished from, 2.80
  - volume number indicated in slip laws, 2.62
- statutory construction, see statutory interpretation
- statutory interpretation, see also body of law; legislative history; legislative intent; Plain Meaning Rule; priority of enactment; reconciling laws that conflict; reconciling provisions (within same law) that conflict; Whole Act Rule
  - generally, Chapter 3
  - agencies, interpretation of statutes by, see agencies
  - appropriations acts, interpretation of, 3.71
  - as distinct from constitutional interpretation, 3.11
  - as one type of judicial function, 3.10
  - as part of judicial power, 3.11
  - as rules of thumb not rules of law, 3.21
  - avoiding serious constitutional problems, 3.51
  - broad interpretation, 3.82
  - chapter headings, United States Code, no inference may be drawn from, 3.14
  - clear statement rules, 3.52
  - Congress does not mumble, 3.83; 7.10; 9.70
  - Congress has power to regulate, 3.14
  - constitutional problems, interpreting statute so as to avoid, 3.51
  - context of act, see Whole Act Rule
  - context of federal law, see body of law
  - courts can consider anything that has the power to persuade, 3.11
  - deference by court to interpretation by agency, see Chevron deference
  - definitions, 3.42; 3.81
  - Dictionary Act, 3.42
  - drafter needs to know techniques of, 1.41; 3.01; 3.13; 3.90
  - drafting manuals, courts should pay more attention to, 3.13
  - earlier versions of same statute, use in interpreting statute, 3.42
  - efforts by Congress to regulate, 3.14
  - exceptions, courts reluctance to imply additional ones, 3.85
  - generalizations by Supreme Court about Congress, 3.83; 9.70
  - “holistic endeavor,” 3.31
  - intent of Congress, 3.20
  - lenity, rule of, 3.82
  - liberal interpretation, 3.82
  - lists, 3.84
  - narrow interpretation, 3.82
  - no single theory, 3.20
  - overriding goal (to determine legislative intent), 3.20
  - placement of section into chapter of United States Code, no inference may be drawn from, 3.14; 3.38
  - presumptions about Congress, see Congress
  - ratification doctrine, see ratification doctrine
  - reenactment, 9.35
  - remedial legislation, 3.82
  - rule against implied exceptions, 3.85
  - rule of lenity, 3.82
  - rules of thumb not rules of law, 3.21
  - start with the text, 3.30
  - “statutory construction” compared, 3.01
  - strict interpretation, 3.82

- terms of art, 3.81; 6.30
- text itself as starting point, 3.30
- theories of, and limitations of those theories, 3.22
- theories of, no single one exists, 3.20
- theories of, usefulness to Congress, 3.12
- United States Code, chapter headings, no inference may be drawn from, 3.14
- United States Code, placement of section into chapter, no inference may be drawn from, 3.14
- statutory name, 7.61
- statutory offices of OMB, 10.21
- “statutory title” of measure, see long title
- Sterne, Simon, 9im
- Stevens, Justice, 3.79
- stipulations,
  - generally, 4.45
  - indicative mood should be used, 6.54
- strict interpretation, 3.82
- striking and inserting, 9.31
- style,
  - federal drafting styles, see federal drafting styles
  - Government Printing Office Style Manual, see Government Printing Office
- style of 1789, 8.10; Appendix 8
- subchapter, see “big levels”
- subclauses, see smaller units
- subcommittees of Congress, see committees
- subdivisions of a section, see smaller units
- subitems, see smaller units
- subject (of a sentence), see legal subject
- subjunctive mood, 6.54
- submitting a report to Congress, see reports submitted to Congress
- “submitting” (introducing) a resolution, 2.21, 5.10
- subparagraph,
  - generally, see smaller units
  - meaning of term in federal drafting, 3.13
- subpart, see “big levels”
- subsections, see smaller units
- subsequent legislative history, 3.74
- subtitle, see “big levels”
- “such sums as may be necessary,” 7.62
- sunset provision, see repeal
- superfluities, rule against (statutory interpretation), 3.34
- Supreme Court of the United States, see also statutory interpretation
  - as most important audience, 3.01
  - “infallible only because we are final,” 3.01
  - tensions with Congress, 3.13
- surplusage, rule against (statutory interpretation), 3.34
- synonyms, avoid using couplets, 6.30
- tables, provide so as to best aid the reader, 6.25
- tabulated lists, see interlocked units
- tactics (parliamentary), 4.25; see also rules and precedents
- “Take Care” Clause, 4.52; 10.10; 10.13
- tax and spend for the general welfare, see spending power
- “tax style,” 8.40
- tense, 6.52
- term and session of Congress, as identified on a measure, 5.12
- terms of art,
  - generally, 3.81; 6.30
  - “shall” as more or less a term of art, 6.55
- “terrier-like,” drafter to be (in spotting issues), 1im; 1.10; 4.20
- territories (of the United States), whether the term “state” includes, 4.11
- textualism (as theory of statutory interpretation), 3.22
- thinking through the policy, see also Actor-Action model; If-Then model
  - generally, Chapter 4; 6.90
  - affecting and amending other laws, see amending another law
  - analyzing alternatives, 4.25

- as fundamental part of drafting, 1im; 1.10
- asking for details, 4.23; 6.15
- assumptions that are faulty, see assumptions that are faulty
- conducting a reality check, 4.27
- considering how the executive branch will respond, 10.00
- constitutional issues, 4.50; see also Constitution
- creating a coherent solution, 4.26
- elements of, 4.20
- engaging the client, 4.21
- figuring out the problem and the objective, 4.22; 6.15
- more important than writing, 1.10
- “notwithstanding any other provision of law,” 9.41
- other laws, 9.00
- researching the facts and law, 4.23; 9.00; 9.41
- separating facts that are important to the policy from facts that are mere description, 6.15
- starting from scratch, see start from scratch when you can
- third person singular, 6.61; 6.62
- Thring, Lord Henry, 4.21; 4.23; 5im; 7im; 7.50
- title (of a measure), see long title; short title
- title (as a “big level”), see “big levels”
- titles and headings,
  - use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- traditional style, see also federal drafting styles
  - generally, 8.30; Appendix 8
  - “big levels” used in, 7.40
  - undesignated paragraphs occasionally used in, 7.33
- train, law requiring train to stop at intersection, 4.15
- training of drafters, see drafter (training of)
- transition, problems of, 4.12
- transitive vs. intransitive verbs, 4.31
- travel expenses, 4.47
- treaties, see executive business (of Senate)
- Trinquamelle, 9im
- Twain, Mark, 2im
- typeface, avoid if hard to read, 6.18
- UCLA School of Law, Appendix 6
- unauthorized practice of law, see professional obligations of drafter
- unconstitutionality, see also Constitution
  - advising client about, 4.25, 4.50, 4.51, 4.53
  - ambiguity may result in, 6.10
  - arbitrariness, 6.13
  - client might find acceptable, 1.12
  - constitutional problems, interpreting statute so as to avoid, 3.51
  - constitutional problems, President identifies in signing statements, 3.61
  - limitations on federal power, 4.52
  - non-severability, 7.63; 9.70
  - overbreadth, 6.17
  - severability, 7.63; 9.70
  - vagueness, 6.14
- under-general, see generality and precision
- undesignated item, see smaller units
- undesignated paragraph, see smaller units
- undesignated unit, see smaller units
- Uniform Code of Military Justice, style used for, 8.70
- United States Code, see also Revised Statutes; positive law and non-positive law
  - generally, 2.80-2.89
    - access to the text of, 1.50
  - amendatory instructions, treatment of errors in, see errors
  - amending, see positive-law and non-positive law
  - appendices to titles, status of laws appearing in, 2.88
  - as distinct from Statutes at Large, 2.80
  - as either “prima facie” or “legal” evidence of law, 2.90
  - codification and classification of new laws, 2.89

- conflict with slip law version or Statutes at Large version, 2.90
- definitions that apply to all or part, 7.50
- editorial changes to, 2.85
- errors in amendatory instructions, treatment of, see errors
- general and permanent law only, 2.86
- Law Revision Counsel publishes and prepares, 2.17
- not a true compilation, 2.85
- not reliable for use in drafting, 2.90
- notes, significance of laws appearing in, 2.88
- organization into titles of, 2.87
- origin as non-positive law, 2.84
- referring to provision in non-positive law title, 2.84
- referring to provision in positive-law title, 2.88
- statutory interpretation of, see statutory interpretation
- style used in, see code style
- titles of, 2.87
- use in drafting not reliable, 2.90
- United States Congress, see Congress
- United States House of Representatives, see House of Representatives
- United States Office of Management and Budget, see OMB
- United States Senate, see Senate
- United States Statutes at Large, see Statutes at Large
- United States Virgin Islands,
  - delegate from, 2.10
  - whether the term “state” includes, 4.11; 6.16
- United Kingdom,
  - drafting in, 1.43; 2.16
  - Office of Parliamentary Counsel, 1.40; 1.43; 2.16
- units of a draft, see “big levels”; sections; smaller units
- “unless Congress otherwise provides,” 9.51
- “unless the context indicates otherwise,” meaning of, 3.42
- unreadable, see readability
- USA PATRIOT Act, 9.20
- user-friendly, see readability
- vagueness, 6.14
- value, drafter’s task is to add, see adding value
- verbs, see also legal action
  - active voice, 6.51
  - concrete, 6.53
  - indicative mood, 6.54
  - present tense, 6.52
- “Vermont schoolmarm,”
  - Beaman as, 1im, 1.40
  - function of drafter as, 1.10
- veto of measure by President,
  - generally, 2.52
  - legislative override, 2.52
  - publication of law after legislative override, 2.60
  - “rabbit bill” example, Appendix 6
- Vice President of the United States,
  - function of Senate in choosing when no electoral majority, 2.12
  - serves as President of the Senate, 2.10
- Virgin Islands, see United States Virgin Islands
- visual aids, provide so as to best aid the reader, 6.25
- voice, see active voice vs. passive voice
- von Bismarck, Otto, 2im
- votes and orders not considered legislative measures, 5.00
- Wager, Sir Charles, 5im
- Walker, Harvey, 4im
- war, President’s powers relating to, 4.52
- Whereas clauses, use in statutory interpretation, 3.36
- Whole Act Rule, see also organizing and arranging
  - generally, 3.31
  - assume each word used for a reason, 3.34

- assume provisions form a coherent whole, 3.35
- assume words used consistently, 3.33
- derive meaning from context, 3.32
- eiusdem generis (of the same kind), 3.84
- expressio unius est exclusio alterius (inclusion of one is the exclusion of others), 3.85
- inclusion of one is the exclusion of others (expressio unius est exclusio alterius), 3.85
- lists, 3.84
- noscitur a sociis (thing is known by its companions), 3.32; 3.84
- of the same kind (eiusdem generis), 3.84
- thing is known by its companions (noscitur a sociis), 3.32; 3.84
- word "not a crystal . . . [but] skin of a living thought," 3.32
- "words are not pebbles," 3.32
- Witte, Edwin E., 10im; 10.30
- Woodsy Owl, 6.15
- words, see also plain language; writing effectively
  - arranging words within sentence, 6.40; 6.41
- writing effectively, see also accuracy; clarity; effectiveness; legal writing; plain language; punctuation; sentences
  - generally, Chapter 6
  - arrangement, see organizing and arranging
  - clear writing leads to accuracy, 6.00
  - clear writing leads to effectiveness, 6.00
  - drafting as form of writing, 1.00
  - elements of being clear, 6.20
  - less important than thinking through the policy, 1.10
  - organization, see organizing and arranging
  - perils of ineffective writing, 6.10
  - readability, 6.18
  - words, arrange with care, 6.41
  - Yeats, William Butler, 6im